- “Digitalisation, Enterprise Development and Innovation” now at board level
- Klemens Haselsteiner new member of the Management Board from 1 January 2020
- Size of Management Board increased from five to six people

Vienna, 22 June 2019 Effective 1 January 2020, STRABAG SE, the publicly listed technology group for construction services, will add digitalisation as a Management Board responsibility and will correspondingly increase the size of the board from five to six members. The new portfolio “Digitalisation, Enterprise Development and Innovation” will be assigned to Klemens Haselsteiner (38).

Klemens Haselsteiner started his career in 2004 at the auditing firm KPMG in Austria. After completing his civil service and gathering work experience at a Russian industrial group, he joined the STRABAG Group in Russia in 2011. There he was entrusted with central controlling, among other things. From 2015, he has been employed at the German STRABAG group company Ed. Züblin AG, Stuttgart Subdivision – initially as commercial business unit manager for turnkey construction, as of 2018 as commercial subdivision manager.

STRABAG SE is a European-based technology partner for construction services, a leader in innovation and financial strength. Our services span all areas of the construction industry and cover the entire construction value chain. We create added value for our clients by our specialised entities integrating the most diverse services and assuming responsibility for them. We bring together people, materials and machinery at the right place and at the right time in order to realise even complex construction projects – on schedule, of the highest quality and at the best price. The hard work and dedication of our more than 75,000 employees allow us to generate an annual output volume of around € 16 billion. At the same time, a dense network of numerous subsidiaries in many European countries and on other continents is helping to expand our area of operation far beyond the borders of Austria and Germany.
