- Design and build contract for Goleniów–Koszalin section
- Construction time from November 2015 to June 2019
- S6 is main traffic artery between eastern and western Poland

Warsaw, 30 October 2015 The S6 expressway links the largest cities in northern Poland, Szczecin and Gdańsk. The publicly listed construction group STRABAG will design and build the section between Goleniów and Koszalin for about PLN 355 million (~ € 83 million).

“The S6 will form the main traffic artery between eastern and western Poland. It runs parallel to the coast, where STRABAG is already realising a number of different projects,” says Thomas Birtel, CEO of STRABAG SE.

Construction of the 24 km dual carriageway asphalt road with two lanes of traffic in each direction will take place between November 2015 and June 2019. The contract includes expressway junctions, rest areas and numerous civil engineering structures such as overpasses, bridges and wildlife crossings.

STRABAG SE is a European-based technology group for construction services, a leader in innovation and financial strength. Our services span all areas of the construction industry and cover the entire construction value chain. We create added value for our clients by our specialised entities integrating the most diverse services and assuming responsibility for them. We bring together people, materials and machinery at the right place and at the right time in order to realise even complex construction projects – on schedule, of the highest quality and at the best price. The hard work and dedication of our more than 73,000 employees allows us to generate an annual output volume of about € 14 billion. At the same time, a dense network of numerous subsidiaries in many European countries and, increasingly, on other continents is helping to expand our area of operation far beyond the borders of Austria and Germany.
